

Mint of the United States at Philadelphia, Pa.,

SUPERINTENDENT'S OFFICE,

August 7 1889

Sir:

Your remittance of $21<sup>00</sup>/<sub>100</sub> recd.

The Mint has no
gold dollars for general
circulation and no orders from the Department at Washington to coin any.

I can furnish
you with proof pieces (see enclosed circular) but to obtain 20 you must remit $4<sup>00</sup>/<sub>100</sub> more. Let me know your desire.

Very Respectfully

Wm. T. Furness
Cambridge
J. M. Fox
Superintendent

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 158

Mint of the United States at Philadelphia, Pa.,
Superintendent's Office,
August 7, 1889

Sir:

Your remittance of $21.00 rec'd.

The Mint has no gold dollars for general circulation and no orders from the Department at Washington to coin any.

I can furnish you with proof pieces (per enclosed circular) but to obtain so you should remit $4 more. Let me know your desire.

Very Respectfully,
D.M. Fox
Superintendent

Milton James Esq.
Cambridge